AMUSEMENTS.

Miss Neilson as Juliet.

In many respects Miss Neilson's Juliet is the most satisfactory that our stage has given us in many years, and the return of Shakespeare's tragedy last night at the Fifth Avenue Theatre was a welcome event to most of her admirers.

Her personal qualifications for the part, she looks Juliet and in the entire ten scenes immediately. But what is of more importance, the daintiness, tenderness, and exquisite fervor of the garden scene show that she possesses something of that poetic imagination that kindles the text into life.

Her range of expression is perfect in its tones, but the scale is limited. There are fine touches of womanly feeling, a very delicate pathos, and infinite suggestions of the gentleness, susceptibility, and purity of youth.

EMIT WILLIAM A. FOWLER.

Extraordinary Scenes in the Brooklyn Common Council Chamber.

Mayor Schroeder yesterday afternoon started the Brooklyn Aldermen in a communication withdrawing the name of Oscar E. Hawley as his appointee for Commissioner of City Works, in place of Wm. A. Fowler, and appointing in his stead John W. Flaherty, a Democrat.

The reason given was that Mr. Hawley was unwilling longer to permit the consideration of his name. The action was wholly unexpected, and the cortege of lobbyists who were standing at the entrance, among them Mr. Fowler, Lieut. Bob Furey, and "Dut" McLaughlin, looked at each other in mute astonishment.

HAYESISM VIGOROUSLY DENOUNCED BY REPUBLICANS.

Some Searching Questions by a Leading Republican Organ. The Crucial Test of Allegiance to the Republican Organization.

It is searching as well as a pertinent inquiry upon which Republicans would do well to reflect. We repeat it. If Mr. Tilden had been elected President had he not immediately adopted the policy as that adopted by President Grant?

Accompanied that a Jersey City Woman was Buried Yesterday. The residents of Pavonia avenue, near Hudson street, Jersey City, are excited over the burial of a woman that neighborhood a few days ago who, it is said, is not dead.

Encouragement for the Anti-Hayesites. The good words which the Traveler has recently published in the North and South are supplemented by many others from the North and South.

Even the Postmasters Dare not Support Him. There are a quarter of a dozen Republican papers in the State which are in support of the President's policy.

Blaine on Hayes. Blaine, according to some accounts, will not be silent in respect to Hayes's policy when Congress meets.

Not a State Officer in Iowa for Hayes. We do not believe there is a single State officer in Iowa supporting the President's policy.

Declaring Themselves Hypocrites. The advocates of the new policy in effect endorse and repeat every charge made by the Republicans against the President's policy.

What Will You Do About It? Now, there are many Republicans who think the course of the President's policy is altogether wrong.

A Debt Blaine Owes to Hayes. Blaine, it is reported, will be one of the Republican members who will vote for the re-election of Hayes.

A Policy of Retaliation. The President not only ought to protect the interests of the South, but also to protect the interests of the North.

Hayes's Southern Policy a Success. Hayes's Southern policy is unappreciated by the South, and it is not likely to be successful.
